

Volunteers registered in the TIA (Tsukuba International Association), as 'Daily Life Supporters', will help you with small troubles or difficulties in your everyday life.

【Content of Support】

'Daily Life Supporters' will

- Go shopping with you and give information on foods, foodstuffs, seasonings, etc.
- Provide information of shops or restaurants
- Explain letters from the children's schools or other sources
- Go to a bank or other facilities with you

※The Supporters will meet at or near the place you will go.

- Other things that the Supporters decide that they can help

【Language】

Please write in your native language. (Automatic translation may be used in some cases.)

【How to Post】

- Please write in simple sentences.
- Do not post personal information in the Facebook group.
- Please use Messenger when you ask something about personal information.

- Ask about your own things.
- Please post purposeful articles that serve our group.

【Prohibited items】

- Do not lend or borrow money.
- Political, religious, marketing or advertising activities are not permitted.
- The Supporter does not give you a ride when accompanying.
- When using Messenger, please do not cause trouble to the Supporters, such as late at night, early in the morning or every day. If the TIA or the Supporters think the burden is quite large, the service may be suspended.

【Items of Consent】

- The Supporters are not experts. They will try to give information to the extent possible and translate them as clearly as they can. We are sorry, but they are not always correct.
- Please understand in advance that the TIA and the Supporters cannot take any responsibility for any disadvantages.
- The Supporters may not respond due to their circumstances.
- Please note that the TIA is not responsible for your damages due to the Supporter's failure to your request items.

- Group members can see your Facebook pages.
- The TIA will delete posts that are not appropriate for our purposes.
- The registration period is three years. If you wish to stop to register, please contact the TIA.
- These rules might be changed or revised at the discretion of the TIA.